COMMERCIAL INTERCOURSE WITH CANADA.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY,

IN ANSWER TO

Resolution of the House of April 7 in relation to commercial intercourse with Canada.

JULY 12, 1862.—Referred to the Committee on Commerce, and ordered to be printed.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, July 12, 1862.

SIR: In obedience to the resolution of inquiry adopted by the House of Representatives, on motion of Hon. Mr. Ward, on the 7th of April last, I have the honor to transmit herewith tabular statements showing "the amount and kinds of the productions of the British colonies imported into the United States, free of duty, under the provisions of the treaty between Great Britain and the United States, signed June 4, 1854, known as the 'reciprocity treaty,' and of the amount and kinds of the productions of the United States exported to the British colonies under the stipulations of the said treaty, from the ratification thereof to the present time; also of the amount and kinds of like productions imported from and exported to the said colonies from the year 1850, inclusive, until the ratification of said treaty, and the amount of revenue received from duties thereon during that period; also of the amount and kinds of manufactures and other articles of United States origin, not free of duty under the provisions of the said treaty, exported to the same colonies from the year 1850, inclusive, to the present time, and of the like manufactures and other articles produced in the said colonies and imported into the United States; also of all other goods and merchandise of foreign origin exported to the said colonies from the United States, and of the goods and merchandise not produced in the said colonies but exported from them to the United States from the year 1850, inclusive, until the present time; giving a statement in each case of the trade of Canada and of each other colony or province with the United States, separately, and also in the aggregate, so far as the same is practicable."

Copies of the Register's letters, transmitting the information to this office, are also herein enclosed.

With great respect, your obedient servant,

S. P. CHASE,

Secretary of the Treasury.

Hon. G. A. GROW,

Speaker of the House of Representatives, Washington.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Register's Office, June 25, 1862.

SIR: I have the honor to hand you herewith the following statements in answer to the resolution of the House of Representatives, on motion of Mr. Ward, under date of April 7, 1862, and referred to this office for report, viz:

- No. 1. Statement of the "amount and kinds of the productions of the British colonies imported into the United States, free of duty, under the provisions of the treaty between Great Britain and the United States, known as the 'reciprocity treaty,' and of the amount and kinds of the productions of the United States exported to the British colonies under the stipulations of the said treaty, from the ratification thereof to the present time," June 30, 1861.
- No. 2. Statement exhibiting the amount and kinds of like productions imported from Canada, separately, and together with those imported from other British North American possessions into the United States from 1850, inclusive, until the ratification of said treaty, and of the amount of revenue which accrued thereon during that period.
- No. 3. Statement exhibiting the value and kinds of domestic produce, free under the treaty, exported to said colonies prior to ratification of treaty.
- No. 4. Statement exhibiting the amount and kinds of manufactures and other articles of United States origin, not free of duty under the provisions of the said treaty, exported to the same colonies from 1850, inclusive, to the present time, June 30, 1861.

Which, with the statements of imports from the said colonies, not free of duty under the provisions of the said treaty, and the exports of foreign merchandise from the United States to the said colonies—the former now nearly ready for delivery—will complete the information requested.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

L. E. CHITTENDEN, Register.

Hon. S. P. CHASE,

Secretary of the Treasury.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Register's Office, July 2, 1862.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit herewith a statement exhibiting the imports not free by treaty stipulations from the British colonies into the United States during the years 1850, '51, '52, '53, '54, '55, '56, '57, '58, '59, '60, and '61, ending on the 30th of June of each year, respectively, which is the last but one of the statements required in answer to the resolution of Mr. Ward, offered April 7, 1862, in the House of Representatives.

The statement of foreign merchandise exported will be furnished as soon as possible.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

L. E. CHITTENDEN, Register.

Hon. S. P. CHASE,

Secretary of the Treasury.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Register's Office, July 12, 1862.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit herewith a statement exhibiting the amount and kinds of foreign merchandise exported to the British North American colonies from the United States from 1850, inclusive, to the present time—June 30, 1861—which completes the statements required in answer to the resolution of Mr. Ward, offered April 7, 1862, in the House of Representatives.

The resolution is herewith returned.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

J. A. GRAHAM, Acting Register.

Hon. S. P. CHASE,

Secretary of the Treasury.

STATEMENT No. 1.

Statement of the amount and kinds of the productions of the British colonies imported into the United States, free of duty under the provisions of the reciprocity treaty, and of the amount and kinds of the productions of the United States exported to the British colonies under the stipulations of the said treaty, from the ratification thereof to the present time, June 30, 1861.
